WHAT'S COOL

DREAM BIG

Mark your calendar for the first big family event of the year!

Family Time!

Events, exhibits, families and more! Read it in English or Spanish.

New to Cool Culture?

Check out Parent FAQ's to learn more about Cool Culture, Family Passes, & eligibility!

COOL TOOLS

DISCOVER WHAT'S HOT

Parents, use Cool Culture activities to explore art-looking and help your children with their vocabulary development in the comfort of your own home and on your cultural excursions as a family.

Activity Guides

With your children, look through these available guides, then download and print out your family's favorites! Do the activities together--then plan a family visit so you can all see the featured object in person.

Use these guides to get ready for Dream Big!

- 🕒 Rhyme Time (The Studio Museum in Harlem)
- 🕒 Art Outside (The Studio Museum in Harlem)

More activity guides:

- 🕒 Getting Familiar with Museums and Collections
- 🕒 A New Kind of Car (Cooper-Hewitt)
- 🕒 Build Your Own Portrait (The Jewish Museum)
- 🕒 Discover a Pendant Mask (the Met)
- 🕒 Create a Window (Museum at Eldridge Street)

Cool Culture Hunt

Ahoy, Explorer! Use Cool Culture Hunt Cards to discover unique cultural objects from museums and to do related activities both at home and at museums.

Learn more about how to "Hunt" plus download Hunt Cards!

A Cool Contest!

Share photos from your family's visit to the Studio Museum visit on Cool Culture's Facebook page for a chance to win a copy of Faith Ringgold's Tar Beach!

The first female African-American physician in New York State was Dr. Susan Smith McKinney-Steward, she lived in Weeksville, an African-American community in Brooklyn during the 19th century.
